

[RECOMMENDATION] Evacuation from Ise Bay and Mikawa Bay

When a storm zone (wind speed 40m/s or more) of typhoon comes to Ise Bay or Mikawa Bay, in accordance with the Act on Maritime Traffic Safety, the 4th Coast Guard regional Headquarters Commander will issue a [RECOMMENDATION: Evacuation from Ise Bay to outside], [RECOMMENDATION: Refrain from entering to Ise Bay], [NOTICE: Evacuation from Mikawa Bay to outside] and [NOTICE: Refrain from entering Mikawa Bay].

Designated vessels should evacuate from Ise Bay and Mikawa Bay to a safe area (outside) with little influence from the typhoon.

1. Designated Area

Ise Bay (applied Act on Maritime Traffic Safety) and Mikawa Bay (incl. Chita Bay)

2. Designated Vessels

Type	Size
PCC (Pure Car Carrier)	LOA 160m <
Container Ship
Gas Tanker
Tanker
Cruise ship	LOA 200m <
Cargo ship
Vessel with dangerous cargo on board	50,000 GT <
Gas Tanker	25,000 GT <
【NOT APPLICABLE】
① Domestic liner vessel
② Vessel whose navigation area is [smooth water], [coasting area] or [limited grater coasting area]
③ Ferry with passengers (including Cruise Ship)

3. Details of RECOMMENDATION and NOTICE

(1) Ise Bay (RECOMMENDATION)

Type	Detail
Evacuation from Ise Bay to outside	Designated vessels in Ise Bay should evacuate from Ise Bay to a safe area (outside) with little influence of the typhoon in the early stage. However, vessels that are able to stay safely in the area with little influence of the typhoon in Ise Bay are excluded.
Refrain from entering to Ise Bay	Designated vessels that are going to enter Ise Bay should refrain from entering Ise Bay. However, vessels that are able to stay safely in the area with little influence of the typhoon in Ise Bay, or vessels that can evacuate to outside of Ise Bay in the early stage are excluded.

(2) Mikawa Bay (NOTICE)

Type	Detail
Evacuation from Mikawa Bay to outside	Designated vessels in Mikawa Bay should evacuate from Mikawa Bay to a safe area (outside) with little influence of the typhoon in the early stage. However, vessels that are able to stay safely in the area with little influence of the typhoon in Mikawa Bay are excluded.
Refrain from entering to Mikawa Bay	Designated vessels that are going to enter Mikawa Bay should refrain from entering Mikawa Bay. However, vessels that are able to stay safely in the area with little influence of the typhoon in Mikawa Bay, or vessels that can evacuate to outside of Mikawa Bay in the early stage are excluded.

4. To make sure of the passage for evacuation from Mikawa Bay, refrain from anchoring in and around Nakayama Channel.

